Malanda continued their carnival format from previous years, kicking off with a 'Junior carnival' - with 25m and 50m distances to suit the young swimmers. Stingrays had twelve swimmers attending and competing in this junior section only; we had no swimmers in the second session. There were 13 clubs represented in total, with a large contingent of 35 from Malanda, Cooktown had an awesome presence of 21 – the largest visiting club. Innisfail's 'Red Devils' were the second largest with 15 swimmers, and quite a few newcomers. Also not forgetting one lone member of Normanton Club.

Results were split into ages, with top three place achievers receiving ribbons with all of our swimmers achieving placements, as per the table above-right.

An excellently run carnival yet again Malanda, with some great food along with it... as always.
